

STATE HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTION

Khanty-Mansiysky avtonomny okrug – Yugra

«Surgut State Pedagogical University»

Social-Humanitarian Department

Chair of Social-Humanitarian subjects

Call for papers

Dear Colleagues

15-16 October 2015 on base Surgut State Pedagogical University will be organized scientific seminar «The Environmental history Siberian North: Promising Research».

Environmental historians from USA and Europe note that Russia is great country with unique natural conditions. Russia is as interesting for environmental historians as unknown. Such statements can be truthful for Siberian North.

The North of Siberia is a region which was develop in very short time. This developing started from particularly development where only need control size of resources extract to total industrial developing with necessary environmental protection. This factors made this region interesting for historical-ecology researches not only in theoretical but in practical fields.

The main goal of scientific seminar is discussed research's results environmental history of Siberian North, his theoretical and methodological aspects of environmental history as self-contained ways of researches.

Discussing these aspects can be possibility for extention subject for research history of the North of Siberia, find knew historical knowledge about origins and evolution of contradictions between people and nature, delepoing professional dialog and discussed main theoretical and methodological problems of environmental history.

The program of scientific seminar will be include member's reports, roundtables, culture's program. Work languages are Russian and English.

The Committee of conference is offering next themes of roundtables:

- Historical experience of nature management on Siberian North: «experience of history» and «experience of historian»,
- The history of regional environmental policy in Russian Empire and Soviet Union: the «north variant».
- Natural resources, natural management and natural protection in the North of Siberia in historical past;
- Models of interaction between society and nature in the North of Siberia in XVII-XX century.

If you will to take a part in conference, you need to send request(the form of request is added) and text of article(size from 3 000 words to 5 000 words) not later 31 August 2015 on follow e-mail: surgut.envhist@gmail.com. The requirement for article's appearance is added. As a result of seminar will be publishing proceedings.

The Committee of conference have a right to reject request and article with represent for publishing.

The travel, living and food of members are paid by their organization.

For all questions you will contact with the Committee of conference on e-mail: reseileiter@mail.ru or tel. +7(982) 188 1736/ +7 (913) 143 6440 (Maksim Mostovenko).

The Committee of conference

The form of request

1. Name and Family name, academic rank, work position, place of work
2. Contact tel. and e-mail.
3. Them of article
4. Curriculum Vitae in with represent scientific field and themes of re-searches. This documents send separately in format MS Word or PDF
5. Text of article.

